

PROGRAMS FOR EDUCATORS: FACT SHEET

INFORMATION FOR EDUCATORS

The Copyright Alliance Education Foundation is pleased to introduce a comprehensive set of materials for educators, which answers questions about copyright and online rules of the road. Following are facts about the program:

- Materials include FAQ, glossary, Educators' Guide and accompanying video
- All materials are available free at www.copyrightfoundation.org
- Developed in partnership with Young Minds Inspired
- Distributed to 5,000 K-12 librarians and media specialists in all 50 states in Spring, 2009
- Feedback from the initial distribution was very positive, with teachers reporting they shared the materials with 24 other teachers, on average
- Broader distribution is planned for Fall, 2009

Some sample comments from educators:

"I like your materials and your website and am using them to teach my 3rd, 4th and 5th graders about copyright issues." – M. S., Silverthorne Elementary, Silverthorne, CO

"I've been waiting/searching for a resource. This is great!" - G.D., Highland Elementary, Owensboro, KY

"This will be beneficial to our staff. Plan to present it in our next in-service in February." – S.F., Kankakee Valley Intermediate, Wheatfield, IN

"Will use in the future. We have a copyright workshop for staff coming up." - L.M., Maple Ave. Elementary, Goffstown, NH

LESSON PLAN LIBRARY

A broad spectrum of free classroom materials is available on the Copyright Alliance Education Foundation web site.

Programs and resources are available for all grades, covering many different subject areas. There are lesson plans, activity ideas, and even links to multimedia events. The Foundation web site offers programs that are:

- Specialized for every grade level – K-12
- Developed in partnership with respected educational organizations and curriculum experts like Weekly Reader, YMI, Scholastic and iSafe
- Used in classrooms throughout the country, generating positive feedback from teachers everywhere
- Easy to align with National Standards across disciplines

ABOUT THE COPYRIGHT ALLIANCE EDUCATION FOUNDATION

The Copyright Alliance Education Foundation is dedicated to developing educational programs aimed at helping America's next generation of creators succeed. The Foundation is a 501c3 subsidiary of the Copyright Alliance.

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT:

www.copyrightfoundation.org